

This line chart displays six price-related metrics over time. The 'Open' series (blue) shows the opening price of each period. The 'Close' series (orange) shows the closing price. The 'High' series (green) represents the highest price reached during the period, while the 'Low' series (red) represents the lowest. The 'VWAP' series (purple) indicates the volume-weighted average price, and the 'LastTradedPrice' series (brown) shows the price of the last trade. The chart features horizontal red grid lines at regular intervals. The overall trend shows a significant peak at the beginning, followed by a decline and then a steady upward movement towards the end of the period.
